8. Photo Consent Form

Applications will not be accepted after THE DEADLINE. Members will be notified by email as to their qualification status. An “ALABAMA DECA STATE LEADERSHIP TEAM CANDIDATE STUDY GUIDE” is provided along with campaign procedures.

Advisors may be interviewed to determine their attitude toward working with a team member and to inform them of their responsibilities when a team member is elected from their chapter. Those responsibilities may include transportation activities, chaperoning, instruction in parliamentary procedures, and assisting with speech preparations. Such responsibilities will be under the direction of the State DECA Advisor.

STATE OFFICER COMMITMENT STATEMENT

Directions: Serving on a successful DECA State Leadership Team is a unique commitment that requires a strong partnership between the team member, the advisor, parents/guardians, and school officials. This form is to be completed and signed by each party and returned to the Alabama Association of DECA.

State Leadership Team Applicant

If elected to serve DECA as a member of the State Leadership Team I agree to:

- Remain committed to my education and family obligations.
- Make DECA state service my top priority after my education and family responsibilities.
- Take the EXTRA STEP as a state leader and promote growth and success of chapters.
- Attend all required meetings, activities, and events in their entirety.
- Cooperate with my school, advisor, local chapter, state chapter, and national association throughout the year.
- Perform all assigned officer responsibilities.
- Keep my school administration, local advisor, and state advisor informed of all activities.
- Maintain the highest degree of personal honor, integrity, and ethics.
- Accept responsibility to pay for expenses not covered by Alabama DECA.

STATE OFFICER CODE OF CONDUCT

Alabama DECA State Leadership Team members are required to perform on a very rigorous and continuous basis. Therefore, it is necessary that those who aspire to become team members be highly qualified, able, and willing to perform. Please read and study the code of conduct very closely. When you are fully convinced that if elected you will, without any reservation, be fully able to carry out the role and responsibility of a DECA State Leadership Team member, then sign and return to Alabama DECA by the deadline.

If elected to the Alabama DECA State Leadership Team, I will:

1. Be totally dedicated and committed to the total program of Career/Technical Education in Business/Marketing education and the Alabama Association of DECA.
2. Fully participate in all appropriate activities, conferences, workshops, etc. for which I have responsibility.
3. Be enrolled in a Business/Marketing education class for the year of service.
4. Work untiringly through preparation and practice to develop myself into an effective public speaker and to project a desirable image of DECA at all times.
5. Conduct myself in a manner that commends respect without any display of superiority.
6. Treat all DECA members equally.
7. Maintain at least an overall "C" average during each grading period.
8. Behave in a courteous and respectful manner, refraining from language and actions that might bring discredit upon the Association of DECA.
9. Forego all alcohol, tobacco, and illegal substances at all times during my year of service.
10. Avoid places and actions that could in any way raise questions as to my moral character or conduct.
11. Obey state and federal laws.
12. Work in harmony with fellow DECA State Leadership Team members and will not knowingly engage in conversations detrimental to other DECA members.
13. Communicate to the State DECA Advisor any circumstances that prevent carrying out predetermined plans at assigned conferences.
14. Follow all other policies as listed in the Association of Alabama DECA Policy Manual and the Conference Code of Conduct/Dress Code.
15. Resign my office if there are any changes in marital or parenthood status.
16. Regularly and on time, write all letters, thank you notes, reports, and other correspondence, which are necessary and desirable.
17. Accept and search out constructive criticism and evaluation of my total performance.
18. Evaluate constantly my personality and attitudes, making every effort to improve myself.
19. Maintain and protect my health.
20. Serve as a member of the team, always maintaining a cooperative attitude.
21. Be willing to take and follow instructions as directed by those responsible for me.

I have read, studied, and understand the above points. If elected to the Alabama DECA State Leadership Team, I will carry out my responsibilities in accordance with these statements and understand that the Alabama DECA Advisory Committee's Executive Committee (Chairperson, Secretary, and State DECA Advisor) may remove me from my position at any time if I do not completely adhere to these established standards.

CAMPAIGNING GUIDELINES FOR STATE OFFICER CANDIDATES

1. Candidates may begin campaigning after receiving their notice of qualification. Campaigning may continue until voting begins at the State Career Development Conference.
2. Each candidate will be allowed to make a campaign speech at the Opening Session. NO SKITS!
 - Candidates for District Vice President will have three (3) minutes for speeches (introduction included).
 - Candidates for State President and State Vice President will have four (4) minutes for speeches (introduction included).
3. All chapters are expected to encourage and observe good taste in the promotion of their candidates so as not to disrupt any planned conference event. Because of the “public eye” being focused on this event, it is absolutely necessary that delegates reflect the conduct expected and desired in “putting our best foot forward.”
4. After candidates have been notified of their qualification status, campaign materials may be mailed to individual DECA chapters at any time before the State Conference at the expense of the local chapters.
5. An optional campaign video, up to 60 seconds in length, may be submitted by DEADLINE to be viewed during the Opening Session and during virtual campaign events. Any video submitted late will not be used. Any video including content deemed inappropriate by the Alabama DECA State Advisor will not be used and notification will be sent to the local Advisor.
6. It is the responsibility of each candidate to produce and submit the campaign video by deadline.
7. Their respective district-voting delegates at the State Career Development Conference will elect the District Vice President for each district.
8. All voting delegates will elect the State President and State Vice President.
9. All candidates must wear a DECA blazer during all campaigning.
10. A candidate who violates any of these campaign guidelines may be disqualified.

Newly elected officers must attend the Officer Installation Rehearsal and Closing General Session in business attire. Immediately following the closing of the Awards Session, newly elected officers must attend the briefing for ICDC (National Conference) attendees.

DECA STATE OFFICERS
DUE PROCESS

I. Required Service to Alabama DECA

- A. Full attendance and participation at the following meetings and conferences:
1. DECA District Meetings/Workshops
 2. Joint Career Technical Officer Training (June)
 3. International Career Development Conference (ICDC)
 4. Fall Executive Council Meeting (August)
 5. Joint Leadership Development Conference
 6. National Fall Leadership Conference – Washington DC
 7. Winter Executive Council Meeting – (January)
 8. Alabama State DECA Career Development Conference (CDC)
 9. Other meeting, conferences, and/or trips as deemed required by the Alabama State DECA Advisor.
- B. Fulfill the duties of office that are listed in the Application for State Office that is signed by each officer candidate and his or her advisor.
- C. Complete all other assignments as deemed required by the Alabama State DECA Advisor.

II. Personal Growth and Conduct

- A. Become knowledgeable of the State DECA program to be able to discuss it with chapter officers and others.
- B. Avoid expressing personal opinions regarding political and/or controversial problems when representing Alabama DECA.
- C. Observe standards of dress and total personal grooming, as well as standards of personal conduct, as established by the national and state DECA organizations (Conference Code of Conduct).

III. Consequences of Failure to Perform

- A. The first time a deadline for any assignment is more than 3 days late, a letter concerning failure to perform will be sent to the officer and copied to the advisor of the officer and the parent/guardians of the officer.
- B. The second time a deadline for any assignment is more than 3 days late, a letter concerning failure to perform will be sent to the officer and copied to the advisor, parents/guardians, career technical supervisor and principal of the officer's school.
- C. The third time a deadline for any assignment is more than 3 days late, the officer must repay the Alabama Chapter of DECA for 50% of the amount of the registration fee for the ICDC. The officer's advisor, principal, career technical supervisor, superintendent, and parents will be notified of the repayment requirement.
- D. The fourth time a deadline for any assignment is more than 3 days late, due process (see IV) for officer's removal from office will begin. The officer's advisor, principal, career technical supervisor, superintendent, and parents will be notified of the process.
- E. The first time a required meeting or any part of a required meeting is missed, due process (see IV) for officer's removal from office will begin if deem appropriate by the Executive Council. The officer's advisor, principal, career technical supervisor, superintendent, and parents will be notified of the process.

- F. Drinking, smoking, immoral behavior, and drug use are serious violations of the Conference Code of Conduct and the State Officer Code of Conduct and will result in immediate due process for officer's removal from office. The DECA State Administrative Board will determine other serious violations of the Conference Code of Conduct and the State Officer Code of Conduct.
- G. Failure to complete a full term (voluntary or mandated) prior to the Alabama State DECA Conference will require that the officer repay 50% of expenses incurred by the officer to date of removal and paid by Alabama DECA.

IV. Due Process for Officer Removal Procedures

- A. Documentation of violations of required service or conduct, or failure to fulfill officer responsibilities will, after all other consequences have been exhausted, be brought before the DECA State Administrative Board for a hearing.
- B. Investigations, including gathering facts from involved parties and witnesses, shall be conducted by the DECA State Administrative Board.
- C. Following a hearing, based on a study of the facts, the DECA State Administrative Board will determine whether the violation warrants the removal of the offending officer from office.
- D. An officer can be removed from office only by a majority vote of the DECA State Administrative Board. The quorum for such a vote is the full membership of the DECA State Administrative Board. A tie vote will be decided by a vote of the DECA State Advisor Staff.
- E. The Student officer, his or her advisor, and the principal from the officer's school will be notified simultaneously within two weeks after DECA State Administrative Board action is taken.

V. Financial Responsibility

- A. Payment for uniforms will be the responsibility of the State Officer. Payments will be made directly to vendor OR to Alabama DECA.

I have read the Due Process document and understand the expectations of serving as a DECA State Officer and the consequences of not completing assignments and/or my term in office.
